GILB MUSEUM EDUCATOR RESOURCES

The Gilb Museum is pleased to offer downloadable lessons and activities through Google Classroom. Each lesson includes a lesson plan, Google Slides, and worksheets. Contact the Gilb Museum if you would like Museum staff to lead lessons or for information on additional classes and offerings!

Tongva Time
Classroom Code: pikkkyo
Learn about the Tongva Native Americans – Arcadia's first settlers! Take a look at some of the Tongva artifacts from the Gilb Museum collection and learn how to make Tongva-English Dictionaries.

Primary Sources - Postcards
Classroom Code: zkauh4n
Take a look at the life of Adolph Frank, a soldier from Wisconsin stationed at Arcadia's Ross Field Balloon School in 1918. In this lesson students will learn about Frank through his postcards in which he wrote about life in Southern California.

Primary Sources - Santa Anita Japanese Assembly Center
Classroom Code: hvsdmk6
Explore primary sources unique to the Gilb Museum that document the lives of people of Japanese descent at the Santa Anita Japanese Assembly Center, including sketches, letters, photographs, and more.
