

The Library Concerts

This concert series is designed for adults and music lovers age 12 and up.

A Classical KALEIDOSCOPE

Paul Stein

Bridget Hough

Leticia Oaks Strong

French Gypsy Virtuosity and Mozart's Violin and Viola Masterpiece

Tuesday, April 23, 2019

7:00 – 8:15 PM

Doors open at 6:30 PM

Violinist Paul Stein and Violist Leticia Oaks Strong of the Los Angeles Philharmonic will be joined by pianist Bridget Hough to play music by Beethoven, Ravel, and Mozart. The flair and bravura of the Tzigane and the lightness and serenity and of the Symphonie Concertante will be featured.

You are cordially invited to meet and greet the musicians following the program.
Refreshments will be served.

RESERVATIONS ARE NOT NECESSARY

ADMISSION: FREE

Seating is limited to 150 people

Friends of the Arcadia Public Library will hold a silent auction during this program to raise funds for the library.

A SERIES OF UNIQUE
AND MEMORABLE
FREE CONCERTS
BROUGHT TO YOU
BY THE FRIENDS
OF THE ARCADIA
PUBLIC LIBRARY