Thank you for your interest in volunteering at the Arcadia Public Library. All information you provide is kept strictly confidential and is for the use of the Volunteer Program only. All applications are kept on file for 6 months and positions are filled as needed. If, after 6 months, you have not heard from the Library, please submit another application, letting us know that you are still interested.

Applications and descriptions of volunteer positions are available on the Library's website www.ArcadiaCa.gov/library under Helping the Library and Forms and Applications. Paper copies of the application are available at each of the public service desks in the Library. Applications can be submitted through the Library's website or turned in to any of the public service desks at the Arcadia Public Library.
