

What Friends Do

We support our community Library through accepting membership dues and other tax deductible donations and by operating the Bookstore in the Library lobby. The Bookstore is run by volunteers and sells donated materials. The Friends provide the Library with well over $50,000 annually in discretionary funding that would not otherwise be available through City of Arcadia tax dollars.

Programs Friends Support

- Children's Summer Reading Program
- Adult English Conversation Class
- On-line after school homework assistance
- Various programs like the Kaleidoscope Classical Concerts
- Community Bookstore with low-cost used books (all categories), CDs, DVDs and more
- Other projects at the discretion of Library staff not supported by the City's tax dollars

How the Friends Raise Funds

- Member dues
- Bookstore sales
- Tax-deductible donations, including memorials and those solicited through the City water bill
- Other donations – especially donations of books and materials we sell in the Bookstore.

Friends of the Arcadia Public Library is a 501(c)(3) public charitable organization and has provided hundreds of thousands of dollars to our community Library over more than 60 years!
